

Walking the Middle Path: Finding the Synthesis between Opposites

Reasonable mind

Emotion
mind

Both regulate actions and make decisions based on reason,
And
take into account values and experience even strong emotions as they come and go.

Doing
mind

Nothing-to-do
mind

Both do what is needed in the moment (including reviewing the past or planning for the future),
And
experience fully the uniqueness of each moment in the moment.

Intense desire for change
of the moment

Radical
acceptance
of the moment

Both allow yourself to have an intense desire to have something else than what is now,
And
be willing to radically accept what you have in your life in the present moment.

Self-denial

Self-indulgence

Both practice moderation,
And
satisfy the senses.
